The British Columbia Racing Commission, established in 1960 by the provincial government, governs, directs, controls and regulates horse racing in the province. It ensures a high standard of integrity in Standardbred and Thoroughbred racing, thereby maintaining the betting public's confidence.

The Commission, from its headquarters in Burnaby, oversees horse racing at seven separate race tracks, including:

- Hastings Park Racecourse in Vancouver
- Fraser Downs in Surrey
- Sandown Raceway in Sidney
- Kin Park in Vernon
- Sunflower Downs in Princeton
- Sagebrush Downs in Kamloops
- Desert Park in Osoyoos

The Commission's principal role is to ensure all race meetings are conducted properly and the betting public's interest is protected.

The Commission is, at present, composed of seven part-time, order in council appointees, who are responsible for:

- making decisions relating to the Horse Racing Act
- establishing race dates for racing associations
- overseeing medication issues, licensing and fees, teletheatre betting sites, and the distribution of monies from the Horse Racing Improvement Fund.

The Commission also hears appeals of the rulings of judges and stewards against licensees found to be in violation of the Horse Racing Act.

The Commission's 18 full-time positions include:

- management - consisting of a director of racing and a secretary-treasurer
- racing officials - including judges, stewards and investigators at each racetrack
- administrative staff - for reconciling wagering, organizing hearings and appeals, maintaining licensing records and recording ownership and placing of horses
- contracted staff - including an accountant, lawyer, veterinarian and stewards for the interior tracks.

In the 1998-1999 fiscal year, the Commission oversaw a total of 3,176 horse racing cards at British Columbia's seven racetracks and 23 teletheatre sites across the province. These included 251 live events and 2,925 simulcast events from locations as diverse as Ontario, Hong Kong, Australia and numerous sites in the United States.

An estimated 586,631 people attended horse racing events at the seven racetracks and wagered a total of more than $218 million - on average, about 80 percent was returned to the betting public. The remainder was distributed as follows:

- approximately $26,704,500 to individual track associations for general operations and purses
- $14,939,243 went to the provincial government, which was further distributed as follows:
  - $3,732,017 to the Horse Racing Improvement Research and Facilities Fund
  - $7,460,574 to the Horse Racing Improvement Fund for awards to owners and breeders, and Commission expenses
  - $3,746,652 to the provincial government's general revenue
- $1,751,120 to the federal government.

WINNERS FOUNDATION

In 1983 a program to combat the abuse of alcohol and other drugs in the horse racing industry had a quiet beginning with the formation of an Alcoholics Anonymous group in the barn area at Hastings Park Racecourse. On November 1, 1989 the initiative became more structured with the incorporation under the Society Act of Winners Foundation of British Columbia. It is under this banner that the racing industry's substance abuse program has been conducted for the past nine years.

The Society's full-time counselor, Lew Finnamore, has had a marked presence in the barn areas at Fraser Downs and at Hastings Park since incorporation and with his anticipated retirement on December 31, 1999 he is expected to be replaced by a well qualified Bill Turner.

Winners Foundation is funded entirely within BC's racing industry - by its four members, Pacific Racing Association, BC Standardbred Association, Orangeville Raceway Ltd. and the H.B.P.A. of BC as well as by the British Columbia Racing Commission.

NEW WEB PAGE!

The BC Racing Commission launched its web site in April of 1999. It has an abundance of information regarding the Horse Racing Improvement Fund, Horse Racing Acts, race tracks, teletheatres, horse racing associations, Commissioners and Commission staff and the horse racing industry. By completing the form on the Feedback page anyone can provide the Commission with comments or suggestions regarding the site. It is our goal to keep the information updated on a regular basis. The web site is found at www.racingcommission.gov.bc.ca.

n D. Purvis was born in the Vancouver General pital on December 31, 1934. He was the youngest of sons born to Walter and Kathleen Purvis. Al grew n the Burquitlam area where he got an early start in equine business world, earning extra money wintering Stanley Park ponies.

attended Burnaby South High School and at 17 he called to an adventure that led him to the Canadian tic where he worked for the Hudson's Bay Company a period of two years.

hen returned to the Vancouver area, completed his de twelve education and in 1956 attended the versity of BC. In 1959 he was accepted into the erinary medicine program at the University of Ontario Guelph. Prior to his graduation Al served his rnship at the nationally renowned Fair Trial Farm Lexington, Kentucky working under guidance of the president of the erican Association of Equine ctitioners, Dr. D.L. Proctor. Al duated from the University of Ontario 964.

September 19, 1964 Al married West couver resident Gail MacDonald. Al's eer led him to Kamloops to practice erinary medicine working in iation with Dr. Lorne Greenway.

1965 Al and Gail returned to the mond Area. In 1966 they moved to Aldergrove area where, along with his veterinary ct[illegible], they established their thoroughbred breeding erprise known as Fair Trial Farm, and the first large nal clinic in BC. At Fair Trial Farm they stood the ed and successful stallions Burnish, Blackpool, Rim, lasmore, Native Talent, Blue Man and the BC owned sire Winning Shot.

the farm they also raised their three children, the est Lee Alan Purvis born September 17, 1966, William d Purvis born March 15, 1969 and finally daughter queline Gail Purvis born August 4, 1972. All three dren were involved in the equine world. The most ed being daughter Jackie who along with many ning and performance horse championships, on ober 23, 1987 in Albequerquie, New Mexico, was vned the U.S. National Champion of the International bian Horse Association, Stock Seat equitation petition. Al and Gail remained married until 1991.

1967 Al accepted the position of Official Veterinarian the BC Racing Commission at Exhibition Park. The duties included the overall supervision of the soundness of all the horses participating in the races.

As the official veterinarian Al had a rapport with the jockeys and trainers that is unequaled. He had the uncanny ability to cooperate with the riders to determine if a horse was too unsound to race and then would follow up with consultation with the trainer of the horse to assist with resolving the soundness problem. On one occasion when Al was made aware that a particular horse may be unsound he walked some fifty or sixty yards down the track to confer with the jockey as to the soundness of the horse. The rider stated that the horse felt okay and requested that the horse be allowed to race. Dr. Al allowed that request. This is only one of many examples of the kind of attention and concern that Al exhibited to both the equine and human alike that participated in racing at the Vancouver oval. In 1975 Al became the Official Veterinarian for the BC Racing Commission for Standardbred racing at the newly established Cloverdale Raceway.

In November of 1991 Al moved his practice to Langley where he resided and worked from the Standardbred Breeding farm of Garry and Jesse Woods being very active in the equine reproduction field. Although Al specialized in equine reproduction, when Dr. Al gave his diagnosis of any veterinary medical condition there was seldom any room for question, his knowledge and ability to make correct diagnosis was unparalleled.

In 1995 Al returned to Aldergrove area and purchased a rural acreage and on August 29, 1996 married Mary Christine Howard. Together they resided on the acreage until Al's passing. Al became very ill in the fall of 1998 and was lovingly and extraordinarily cared for by his wife Chris. After a lengthy and courageous battle Al succumbed to cancer on June 8, 1999.

Al Purvis's dedication to his responsibilities and profession where absolutely unprecedented. He was unquestionably relied upon by all who were in need of his expertise. Although Al's life was much too short it was filled with many challenges and rewarding experiences.

Al inspired a calm confidence in all of us who had the privilege of knowing him. Al held a position that has to be filled but Dr. Al will never be replaced.

Dr. Alan D. Purvis leaves his courageous influence with wife Chris, sons Lee and Reid and daughter Jackie and granddaughter Morgan.

Federal and provincial regulations stipulate that no more than a maximum of 30.8 percent of total betting revenues can be retained for administration, track operation, capital improvements, industry development, and all other management, development and operating functions.

All track associations in the province retain substantially less than the maximum percentage allowed and the bulk of wagering revenues is returned to the betting public in the form of winnings. Of the amount retained by the track associations, no more than 23 percent goes to the local association while seven percent goes to the provincial government and 0.8 percent goes to the federal government.

The track associations use a portion of their proceeds to pay the purses, and the size of those purses is determined by each track in negotiation with the relevant horse racing industry association.

Of the seven percent allocated to the province, 3.5 percent goes to the Horse Racing Improvement Fund, 0.5 percent, one percent, and two percent to the Research and Facilities Fund and to provincial general revenues in varying amounts depending on the type of betting. Attendance at live horse racing events in British Columbia continues to decline. In 1994, just over one million people attended live racing events. This number has continued to drop and by 1998 the number of people attending dropped to approximately 591,000. The percentage dropped approximately 30% from 1997 to 1998, from 863,344 to 586,631 people attending live racing events.

Industry analysts agree that live wagering and attendance have been affected by an increasing amount of gambling alternatives available to the public. On the other hand, simulcasting wagering has increased by 16 percent in the past year.

The Horse Racing Improvement Fund (H.R.I.F.) is administered by the Commission to sustain the quality and activity of the horse racing industry in British Columbia.

The H.R.I.F. provides 3.5 percent of the amount wagered to be allocated to Breeders' Awards, Purse Supplements and Grant Programs and 0.5 percent to the Research and Facilities Fund, as prescribed by the Horse Racing Tax Act and the Horse Racing Tax Act Regulations. The objectives of the H.R.I.F. are to:

- maintain and improve the quality of horses in British Columbia
- sustain breeder activity and maintain a high standard of quality of foal production
- increase sales of British Columbia bred horses to foreign buyers
- ensure that the breeding of high-quality horses in British Columbia is recognized and rewarded.

The present Thoroughbred H.R.I.F. formula (April 1 1995 to March 31, 1997) will continue until March 31, 2001.

In consultation with the Standardbred representatives, the Commission established the current H.R.I.F. formula from September 1998 to August 31, 2005.

RESEARCH AND FACILITIES FUND

The Research and Facilities Fund receives 0.5 percent from the revenue that goes to the provincial government, as is outlined in the Horse Racing Tax Act Regulations.

This fund is used for upgrading facilities, conducting research to further improve racetrack facilities, and for activities designed to increase attendance and revenue.

Capital improvements help increase attendance and wagering, and therefore generate greater revenues for all participants and raise purse earnings for B.C. breeders and owners.

As of August 23, 1995, an additional one percent of teletheatre wagering and two percent of the simulcast wagering was allocated to the Research and Facilities Fund.

THOROUGHBRED SECTOR

All revenue allocated to the Research and Facilities Fund, which was established in 1987, is paid to the Pacific Racing Association. This includes 0.49 percent of all Thoroughbred wagering, one percent from teletheatre and two percent from simulcast wagering.

The Commission retains 0.01 percent of all Thoroughbred wagering in the fund for other Thoroughbred research & facility purposes.

STANDARDBRED SECTOR

The Research and Facilities Fund for the Standardbred sector receives 0.5 percent from all Standardbred wagering, one percent of teletheatre and two percent from simulcast wagering, for upgrade of facilities and to fund research initiatives to further improve the racetrack.

In 1998 - 1999 funds were used for improvements to the Test Barn, Sawdust Program Project and decoders for simulcasting.

TELETHEATRES AND SIMULCASTING

During 1998-1999, the Commission regulated activities at the 23 teletheatre sites located in 22 communities throughout the province and approved the expansion of simulcast presentations of racing events from Hong Kong and various North American sites.

These teletheatres carry satellite broadcasts of horse racing events from various locations within the province and elsewhere.

Teletheatres allow local community residents to participate in horse race wagering without having to travel extended distances to attend the live event.

During the 1996 - 1997 season, the British Columbia legislature permitted an increase in the number of approved sites for teletheatre betting locations from 19 to 26.

The 23 sites currently in operation provide the public with the opportunity to watch and wager on races run throughout the province and other parts of the world.

QUARTER HORSE RACING
Summer 1998

The interior tracks in Kamloops, Osoyoos, Princeton and Vernon hold Quarter Horse races each summer. In 1992, there were 102 races, this increased to 106 races in 1994 and in 1995 the number dropped to 72. In 1995, 60 races were held while in 1998 they were reduced to 34. The best Thoroughbreds in the province compete at Hastings Park, similarly the best Quarter Horses compete on the Interior Circuit. As a result of the decreased number of Quarter Horse races in BC, the Quarter Horse breeders, owners and trainers face a serious economic challenge.
